

Work from home

Hello there is a variety of different work available to complete with your child at home dependent on their level and if they can assess learning in that particular way

Added below are also some useful links that will provide digital resources such as PowerPoints interactive resources

Useful websites and apps

<https://www.topmarks.co.uk/>

<http://www.crickweb.co.uk/Early-Years.html>

<https://nrich.maths.org/early-years>

<https://www.familyeducation.com/fun/21-free-educational-apps-kids>

<https://tinkerlab.com/>

<https://www.twinkl.co.uk/resource/t-he-770-free-home-education-resources-sample-pack>

PMLD/Sensory learners

<https://www.tes.com/teaching-resource/sensory-stories-for-all-ages-6125158>

<https://equals.co.uk/whiteboard-room/>

<https://equals.co.uk/whiteboard-room-pmld-sensory-stories/>

<https://equals.co.uk/whiteboard-room-art-exploring-and-developing-ideas/>

<https://www.senteacher.org/downloads/sensory/87/Free-Sensory-Stories.html>

Autism specific

<http://www.drumbeatasd.org/attachments/download.asp?file=102&type=pdf>

<https://www.tes.com/teaching-resource/teach-workstation-ideas-autism-asd-6033682>

Communication/Symbol resources <https://widgitonline.com/>
<https://www.makaton.org/shop/> <http://www.communication4all.co.uk>

Other suggested activities could be

- Getting children involved with practical task e.g helping make dinner
- Reading stories and books together
- Being creative box modelling
- Setting mini task for children e.g can you build .....

Can you make.....